New Publications.

NOW READY:
THE LIFE AND TIMES
OF
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.
BY JAMES PARTON.
THE FIRST COMPLETE BIOGRAPHY
OF
THE GREAT AMERICAN PHILOSOPHER AND DI-
PLOMATIST EVER PUBLISHED.
Two vols., Crown 8vo., 133 pages. Steel Portraits.
Price $5.

The frequent publication of Dr. Franklin's Autobiography has detected any writer hitherto from attempting a complete and thorough biography of this truly great and distinguished man. No one ever left to the world a record more rich in the requisite material for a most interesting and instructive history of his life, and the wonder is that so many years should have elapsed before its presentation to us in a connected and systematic form.

The story of Franklin's career, as it presents itself to the investigation of another, has remained to this day untold; and one who would know it in all its fullness of interest and beauty—no one who would see Franklin as others saw him, which is biography—must read ten volumes, and consult two hundred. In the composition of the present work, the autobiography has been regarded only in the light of "material." Autobiography is one of the most interesting and valuable kinds of composition, but autobiography can never be accepted in lieu of biography, because to no man is the gift given of seeing himself as others see him. Dr. Franklin, moreover, assures us that he wrote his autobiography for the instruction of youth, he omitted "all facts and transactions which may not have a tendency to benefit the young reader."

The object of this biography is simply to render knowledge of the benign and noble life of Dr. Franklin more accessible to his countrymen.

Sold by MASON & HAMILTON, Boston, and by booksellers generally. Printed by MASON BROTHERS,
No. 7 Mercer-st., New-York.
